

SCHOOLS AS LEARNING ORGANIZATIONS

Manhattanville College School of Education's Educational Leadership program is excited to offer a brand-new class in Spring 2018!

In response to the need for a universal understanding of the school as a learning organization, this course aims to help school leaders:

- Develop and create a vision centered on the learning of all students
- Move education forward in positive directions
- Establish a culture of innovation and exploration
- Build upon existing leadership theories and leadership styles
- Promote team learning and collaboration among administrators, school leaders and staff
