

Prepare for Leadership Positions in Westchester with Hunter College

Program Highlights

- Participate in a unique cohort with colleagues from across the Lower Hudson Valley
- All courses are online
- Earn your Master's Degree in Educational Leadership
- Earn your SBL and SDL certificates
- Complete the program in 2 years
- Courses one night per week
- Affordable tuition and high-quality instruction
- Earn a master's degree and SBL/SDL certification

For additional information visit the Hunter/EWTC Site

If you have questions, please email

Lori D'Andrea, EWTC Director ldandrea@ewteachercenter.com

Are you interested in earning a master's degree and SBL/SDL certification with Hunter College in Westchester?

In partnership with the Edith Winthrop Teacher Center, this unique program will prepare certified teachers, coaches and pupil personnel providers for roles in school leadership or to empower teacher leaders within your school district. Course work begins in the fall of 2024. Application must be submitted by April 15th.

Start the Pre-Application process now!

Admission Requirements

- Minimum of 3 years teaching experience
- Master's degree, minimum GPA of 3.0
- Permanent or professional NYS Teacher or Pupil Personnel Service Provider Certification

Click here to register for the Information Session on January 11, 2024 from 4:00-4:45 pm

Edith Winthrop
Teacher Center