

Centerfold

The Edith Winthrop Teacher Center of Westchester

www.ewteachercenter.com

914.948.8037

"A Source for Teachers, a Promise for Students"

February 2020

Master's Degree Program in Education Administration

This Master's degree program, a collaboration between our Teacher Center and Hunter College, will begin this September and consist of 8 courses (4 credits each) for a total of 32 credits. There will be 4 semesters with 2 courses being offered each semester. These hybrid courses will be offered online and in person (Tuesdays at 4:30 p.m. at the Greenburgh CSD). Registration for this program is open until March 15th. For more information, click here. To register on My Learning Plan, click here.

Special Education Certification – Grades PreK-K

The Mid East Suffolk Teacher Center (MESTRACT) will be offering (online) the PreK-K Special Education Extension Series. The first of this three part series – Course 1: Knowledge of Students will begin on February 28th. Eligible teachers must have a Student with Disabilities 1 – 6 NYS Certification and a minimum of 3 years teaching experience at 1st and/or 2nd grade levels. If you are interested in registering, click here.

K-12 STEAM Conference

The Teacher Center of Central Westchester is hosting the Third Annual K-12 STEAM Conference that will take place on Thursday, March 12th. There is a $40 registration fee for this conference that the Edith Winthrop Teacher Center will cover for consortium members. Call or email us for registration information.

Certificate of Advanced Study in Bilingual Education – Information Session

In partnership with the Hudson River Teacher Center/PNW BOCES, Manhattanville College will offer a 15 credit Certificate of Advanced Study in Bilingual Education. There will be an information session on Wednesday, March 25th at 4:00 p.m. at PNW BOCES. For more information on this session email Danielle Colangelo at dcolangelo@pnwboces.org.

Social Emotional Learning Conference – Saving our Students

As a participating member of the Lower Hudson Teacher Center Network, all our consortium members are invited to attend this FREE conference on March 28th. A light breakfast along with lunch is included and registrants are eligible for CTLE hours. There will be an opportunity to view the film, "The Kids we Lose" and to participate in a panel discussion supporting current NYS SEL guidelines. In addition, a number of different workshop sessions will be available throughout the day. The Edith Winthrop Teacher Center will be handling the registration for this event, which will be posted on MLP in the next week. An eblast will be sent out when registration is open. Questions should be sent to:

susanfarrell@ewteachercenter.com or karincabral@wpcsd.k12.ny.us.

Hybrid: Building an Online Teacher Center Course - April 13 – May 22, 2020

Are you interested in teaching a class for the Teacher Center? The course will provide you with guided instruction, along with the resources needed, to successfully develop a rigorous, engaging and meaningful online Teacher Center course. At the end of the course, you will have a professional development course ready for consideration by the Teacher Center Policy Board. Since there is no cost for this online program and is an opportunity to join our cadre of established TC instructors, no in-service or CTLE credit will be available. For more information or to register, click here.

Spring 2020 STEM Professional Development Offering

STEM Workshops are being offered at the Mercy College – Dobbs Ferry location in March and May. For more information on this partnership with STANYS (Science Teacher Association of New York), click here.

The 15th Annual Changing Suburbs Institute

The Teacher Center can sponsor a limited number of teachers for this all day conference. If interested in attending, please contact the Teacher Center for registration information.

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Nancy Cloud, Professor Emerita and former Director of the M.Ed in TESL
Teacher Preparation Program
Feinstein School of Education and Human Development
Rhode Island College

Topic: Advancing English Learners' Language and Literacy Development using Culturally Responsive Children's Books.

Location: Manhattanville College
Date: Thursday, April 2
Time: 9:30 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

DASA TRAINING

The Teacher Center will be offering the six (6) hour DASA Certification Workshop on Saturday, March 14th from 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. at Woodlands HS – Room 136, West Hartsdale Avenue, Hartsdale, NY 10530. To register, click here.

The STEAM Institute for Early Childhood Education at Manhattanville College

Manhattanville College is offering a series of 3 workshops for Early Educators. This series begins on February 8th. If interested in attending, email tgallucci@ewteachercenter.com or contact the Teacher Center at 948-8037.

Online Book Study

Lost at School: Why our Kids with Behavioral Challenges are Falling Through the Cracks and How We Can Help Them

As a result of the overwhelming response to this spring course offering, we have opened a second session that will begin on July 1st. For more information or to register, click here.

Teacher Center Policy Board

Our next meeting will be a Google Hangout February 25th. An agenda will be sent to our Policy Board representatives next week.

Upcoming Courses

Visit our website www.ewteachercenter.com for our slate of courses which is continually being updated.