

Free January Learning Opportunities

ELA, Mathematics, Self-Care

The Teacher Center of Central Westchester

Receive CTLE Hours

*January 14, 2021 (4:00-5:30 pm) Teaching

Reading in the Hybrid Classroom: Practical Tools and Resources to Make Your Day Run Smoothly K-5:

No matter how skillful, teachers cannot be in two places at the same time! This workshop introduces teachers to routines and topics to move fluidly between students at home and at school. Learn some practical tools to help you get organized, plan like you have never planned before and integrate some teaching resources to make your day run smoothly.

Click to register for this informative workshop

*January 20, 2021 (4:00 -6:00 pm) Filling in the Gaps: Big Ideas to

Focus On in Math: This two hour workshop will go over impactful big ideas to focus on when working to fill in gaps in your students' understanding. You will leave this workshop with strategies and activities you can implement right away to help support your students learning during these challenging times

Click to register for this engaging workshop

*January 28, 2021(4:00-6:00) Self Care Isn't Selfish-Taking Care of Yourself and Supporting Others:

This session will offer information and resources to help participants manage the stress and anxiety during these unprecedented times. We will engage in strategies that you can use, as well as some that you can teach to others.

Click to register and de-stress

*February 25, 2021 (4:00-6:00) Closing the Equity Gap:

This workshop will initially provide a brief introduction and overview of the conceptual framework so that we have a shared language and terminology. Educators will participate in a self-awareness activity enabling them to reflect on their own positionality (who we are, what we bring) relative to Ed Equity. Attendees will engage in interactive dialogue around application, using prompts and questions to think about the work they do and conclude with suggestions for practice.

Click to register and participate in this outstanding event