The Children's Environmental Literacy Foundation (CELFF)

CELFF will be offering their annual summer institute on Education for Sustainability on July 9-12 at Manhattanville College in Purchase. Participants will learn how to transform learning by engaging students in ways that connect them to the world around them and understand how everyone has the ability to change or impact a system, community and themselves. There will be hands-on workshops and cutting edge presentations on Climate Change, Citizen Science, and Big World, Small Planet. The Teacher Center can pay the registration fee ($550/person) for one teacher per consortium district. For funding information, please email or call the Teacher Center.

New York Partners for Technology Innovation (NYPTI)

New York Partners for Technology Innovation (NYPTI), an approved CTLE provider, is offering 15-hour online courses for teachers. The courses begin on July 23, 2018. Each $59 course is 5 weeks long and will be taught on the Edmodo platform. For more information or to register on MLP, click here.

Mentoring Program

The Teacher Center is hosting a yearlong Mentor Program open to our consortium members. The first six-hour session will be held on August 23 with 3 follow up dates throughout the year. There are still a few spots left for this program. If you would like to register, click here.

SUMMER HOURS

The Teacher Center will close on Friday, July 13 and will reopen on Tuesday, August 21. We will, however, be checking our phone and email messages on a regular basis. Feel free to leave a voicemail message and we will respond within a day or two. Until then, our office will be open Monday through Thursday from 9.00am until 4:30pm. Have a Safe and Enjoyable Summer!

The Teacher Center staff would like to thank the Administrators, the Business Office at Greenburgh CSD, our LEA, and the teachers who have shared their expertise and their high level of professionalism.

Special thanks to those who have served on our Policy Board this past year. You are an important and vital part of our Teacher Center.
