"A Source for Teachers, a Promise for Students"

November 2019

Online: Teaching with Poverty in Mind, Instructor – Linda Palumbo

This online course, which is open to all teachers and offered at no cost to our consortium members, is running from January 27 – February 14, 2020. Throughout the course, participants will be using Eric Jensen's book, Teaching with Poverty in Mind: What Being Poor Does to Kids' Brains and What Schools Can Do About It. The Teacher Center hopes to offer a 30-hour follow up course this summer. We will purchase sufficient copies of the Eric Jensen book for each participant but it must be picked up at the Teacher Center prior to the commencement of the class. To register, click here.

Have you been considering National Board Certification?

New York State offers financial support for teachers to pursue National Board Certification. The Albert Shankar Grant from NYSED pays for the entire process, minus the yearly registration fees. Grants are awarded on a first-come, first-serve basis and are currently being accepted through February 28, 2020 or until all funds are exhausted, whichever comes first. If you're ready to start your journey this year, click on the above link for more information.

DASA TRAINING

The Teacher Center will be offering a DASA Certification Workshop on Saturday, November 16 from 9:00 am – 4:00 pm @ Woodlands HS – Room 136, 475 West Hartsdale Avenue, Hartsdale, NY 10530. To register, click here.
